

Mr. Eugene (Gene) Crosser – Mental Health Counselor II
PEE DEE MHC
Years of Service: 3 years

Mr. Eugene “Gene” Crosser has an exceptional job attitude. He is always polite, respectful, professional, on time and appears to love working with children and families. He is usually the first to respond to a directive from his Supervisor or the Clinic Director. Mr. Crosser has a positive attitude as observed by staff throughout the agency. His productivity for the past fiscal year was above the requirement – he consistently makes productivity. He is a great team player and a great source of support. He never says “no” when help is needed; but re-arranges his schedule so that he may be able to assist as needed.

He offers extraordinary support to patients and families and goes the extra mile to provide services to them. He makes home visits when the patient is not available at school and he assists patients with transportation issues to help them keep clinic appointments.

Mr. Crosser is an outstanding team player! He works exceptionally well with school and clinic staff and is very much liked and respected by his co-workers and school staff. He displays exceptional compassion and empathy; has established an amazing rapport with his patients and their families. He has been able to bring out a spirit of calmness and cooperation from very difficult parents. He relates well to patients that other counselors have struggled with due to a conflict or circumstance.

Mr. Crosser continues to serve in Youth Ministry where he has served for over 20 years. He serves as a Volunteer for the North Myrtle Beach Turtle Patrol, in an effort to safeguard turtle eggs. He has coached youth soccer in Georgia, Kentucky, and Illinois; and received recognition as “Huddle Leader of the Year”. He enhances staff morale at the Marion Clinic by bringing all flavors of cupcakes that he has baked for a special occasion or no occasion, other than to share with staff. (Mr. Crosser and his wife, Jackie, have two children; both are in college.)
