

S. C. MENTAL HEALTH COMMISSION

COLUMBIA, SC

*** TRAINING NOTICE & AGENDA ***

TO: All Concerned

SUBJECT: September 8, 2023, Training Session of the S.C. Mental Health Commission

The South Carolina Mental Health Commission will participate in a training Friday, September 8, 2023, at the South Carolina Department of Mental Health (DMH), 2414 Bull Street, Columbia, 29201 in Room 320, immediately following the adjournment of its business meeting.

Individuals who wish to attend the meeting may do so remotely via Zoom. Registration is required to receive the link to join the training. Click here to register or contact Kim Ballentine via email (see below) no later than 5:00 p.m. on September 7, 2023 to be sent the registration link:

(https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_iX2nkwVLTLSD2jTkzupt5w#/registration)

Training Agenda

- SC FOIA: Getting Transparent About Your Responsibilities Under the Law (45 minutes)
- Question & Answer Period (15 minutes)

About the trainer: Ashley Story is a partner with White & Story, LLC, a Columbia-based law firm that represents state agencies, school districts, and other employers throughout the state. Her practice includes employment and education defense, both providing general counsel to her clients and defending them when litigation occurs. Ashley enjoys providing training on a variety of topics, including SC FOIA. When she is not practicing law, she spends time with her husband, two girls, and three sighthounds.

Kim Ballentine
Recording Secretary
kim.ballentine@scdmh.org